[First published in The Topeka State Journal March 15, 1912.]

Topeka, Kan., March 13, 1912.

At a meeting of the Republican Congressional Committee of First District of Kansas, held at Topeka on 13th day of March, 1912, the Chairman and Secretary of said Committee were directed to issue the following call:

There will be a delegate convention of the Republicans of First Congressional District of Kansas, held in the City of Atchison on 16th day of April, 1912, at the hour of two o'clock, for the purpose of electing two delegates and two alternates to the Republican National Convention to be held in Chicago on Tuesday, the 18th day of June, 1912.

The delegates to this Congressional Convention to be selected at such time and by primary, delegate or mass convention or in such other manner as may be determined by the Republican County Central Committee of the respective counties of the District. The basis of apportionment of the delegates for each county shall be one delegate at large and one delegate for each 250 votes, or major fraction thereof, cast for National Elector Case Broderick at the November election in 1908. The counties in this Congressional District will be entitled to representation as follows:

Atchison 14
Brown 12
Doniphan 10
Jackson 10
Jefferson 10
Leavenworth 20
Memphis 11
Shawnee 21

The Chairman of the various County Committees are instructed to forward to the Chairman of this Congressional Committee a certified copy of the credentials of the delegates selected, so that they may be received not later than 11th day of April, 1912, in order that this Congressional Committee may prepare a temporary roll of the organization of the Congressional Convention.

By order of the Congressional Committee of First District of Kansas.

B. E. BREWSTER, Chairman.
